Bradford L. Johnson, MAI, MRICS

Brad Johnson is the Senior Executive Director and founding Principal of Integra Realty Resources Tampa Bay. He is a National Practice Leader of Integra's Healthcare and Seniors Housing specialty practice and directs valuation and consulting engagements related to a wide variety of seniors housing and health care properties. Brad has more than 40 years of commercial real estate related experience in consulting, valuation, brokerage, development and land use planning. He has supervised thousands of market analyses and valuation assignments throughout the United States, including portfolio engagements.

Brad also has extensive experience in the analysis and valuation of conventional and affordable housing projects, such as retirement communities, condominium and rental multifamily and student housing and master planned communities.

He is experienced with the various financing programs often utilized for such projects, including conventional financing, FNMA Delegated Underwriting Servicing (DUS), Freddie Mac, Low Income Housing Tax Credits (LIHTC), SAIL loans, HUD Lean and Multifamily Accelerated Processing Program (MAP), FHA and USDA Section 538 programs. Brad is qualified as an expert witness in Florida, Connecticut and Michigan District and Circuit Courts, as well as the United States Bankruptcy Court. He has testified at various Tax Adjustment Board hearings and in Florida Tax Appeals Court.

Raymond E. Veal, MAI, CCIM, MRICS

Ray Veal is an Executive Director and Principal for Integra Realty Resources Tampa Bay. He has over 35 years of experience in commercial real estate, including brokerage, management, consulting and valuation. Ray has appraised a wide variety of property types, including all of the basic 'food groups', though he has specialized in complex assignments involving mixed-use planned unit developments, hospitality/lodging, marinas, subdivisions, golf courses, conservation easements and large tracts of vacant land. Ray is also frequently engaged to conduct marketability and feasibility studies and to provide real estate investment consulting services.

The most unique area of Ray's specialty practice is over ten years of experience in conservation easement valuation, which frequently involve the valuation of subdivisions and golf courses. Ray is also "Yellow Book Certified," a certification that ensures his appraisals comply with government appraisal standards when required. He has testified as an expert in U.S. Tax Court on multiple occasions and is frequently engaged to review easement reports prepared by other appraisers.

Ray's golf course appraisal experience includes a large number of courses in California, Nevada, Florida, Georgia, Idaho and other states.
