OUR VALUE PROPOSITION

Our office is led by two managing directors that have accumulated over 45 years of valuation experience in New England providing services to both the public and private sector. Clients include financial institutions, government agencies, investment funds, law firms, private entities as well as many others. The directors and the supporting staff of analysts provide a wide array of services including the valuation of traditional commercial properties as well as consulting services. Property types include various portions of the retail, office, industrial and multifamily residential sectors as well as a variety of special use properties including, but not limited to, lodging facilities, schools, marinas, self storage and recreational facilities.

Donald R. Donner, II, Senior Managing Director

Mr. Donner has over 15 years of commercial valuation experience throughout New England including all commercial property sectors. Additional expertise includes the valuation of credit tenant, net leased properties, lodging facilities, medical office properties and self-storage properties. Mr. Donner also oversees all Fair Market Value studies with STARK compliance for medical providers throughout New England. Mr. Donner also has experience with valuation litigation matters and is recognized as an expert witness in federal court.

Todd M. Isaacson, MAI, Managing Director

Mr. Isaacson has over 30 years of commercial valuation experience throughout New England including all commercial property sectors. Additional expertise includes extensive knowledge in the multifamily affordable housing sector that has included preparation of market studies, feasibility studies as well as appraisals for properties that use or are encumbered by affordable housing programs (e.g. LIHTC, Section 8, workforce housing). Mr. Isaacson is also an approved HUD MAP appraiser and has worked with local and state housing authorities and HUD over the past 30 years. Mr. Isaacson also has extensive experience with valuation litigation matters and is recognized as an expert witness in both federal and state courts. Past assignments have included ad valorem tax cases, eminent domain takings and property disputes.
